YOUTH/PARENT SEMINARS in US Auditorium

"The NEW PARADIGM" – PART 2

About this Event

In our ever-changing world, how do we define workplace success? How can we empower our youth to lead a happy life and have a meaningful career?

During this interactive and engaging seminar for both youth and parents, learn about myths to success in the workplace and how the frameworks for true success can be built at any age, both at school and in the home.

Fari Khabirpour, former Director of Centre psycho-social et d'accompagnement scolaires, and Olivier Diss, Director of Human Resources and Global Talent for BorgWarner will join us for Part 2 of this unique seminar.

A child minding room during the seminar time will be available for any parent who has younger children.

If you have any questions regarding this seminar please contact Lou Gervais on lgervais@islux.lu or by phone 2604 4205.
